

- 1 Paragraph 2 is mainly about —
- A how and why cats were smuggled from Egypt
 - B ways cats in ancient Egypt were treated as sacred animals
 - C what was buried with cats in Egyptian tombs
 - D how Egyptian owners were sad when their cats died

- 2 Paragraphs 3 and 4 are mostly about —
- F two ways that your cat likes to be spoiled—being fed and exercising
 - G how to provide a tasty treat now and then to pamper your cat
 - H how cats like to run, jump, scamper, and chase after toys
 - J being sure your cat gets enough exercise to make up for all their eating

- 3 Why do cats like to lie on windowsills?
- A They like to be fussed over and given treats.
 - B They like to be noticed by their owners.
 - C They like to be warm while looking outside.
 - D They like to look like a king or queen.

- 4 The author organizes the story by —
- F telling a sequence of events in the day of a cat
 - G comparing habits of ancient cats with modern cats
 - H asking and answering questions about how to spoil a cat
 - J describing ways that cats can be spoiled

- 5 Read the web below and use it to answer the question.

Which of these best completes the web?

- A Give it lots of attention.
- B Do not wake it with loud noises.
- C Provide it with milk, mice, and rats.
- D Take it for long walks.