

- 1 The author organizes paragraphs 3–9 by —
- A comparing the original blue jeans to today’s blue jeans
 - B describing how blue jeans were invented
 - C persuading you to wear blue jeans often
 - D informing you of different blue jean styles
- 2 The author organizes paragraphs 10–12 by —
- F explaining how blue jeans are sewn
 - G listing different styles of blue jeans
 - H comparing blue jeans of long ago to today
 - J telling a funny story about blue jeans
- 3 Which sentence from the text explains the reason why rivets were added to the pockets of jeans?
- A Rivets are small metal fasteners.
 - B This addition made the pockets even stronger.
 - C The pants usually did not fit as well.
 - D Rivets can still be found on pants today.
- 4 Paragraph 2 is mainly about how —
- F there are many styles of blue jeans worn today
 - G your children will probably wear blue jeans
 - H blue jeans are popular in the United States
 - J blue jeans are worn by lots of different people around the world
- 5 What does the subheading “Levi’s Waist-High Overalls and Today’s Jeans” tell the reader about this section?
- A The section explains how blue jeans were first made.
 - B The section compares blue jeans of long ago to today.
 - C The section describes the process used to make blue jeans.
 - D The section explains the effects of Levi Strauss’ invention on people today.