

1 The author organizes paragraphs 3 and 4 by —

- A comparing the giant panda in the wild to giant pandas in zoos
- B describing how giant pandas get their food
- C persuading you to save the giant panda from extinction
- D explaining why the giant panda is on the endangered list

2 The author wrote paragraph 1 in order to —

- F tell how she became interested in giant pandas
- G grab the attention of the reader with an interesting fact
- H describe how she feels about giant pandas
- J describe the zoo setting to the reader

3. The reader can conclude that giant pandas —

- A would not make good pets
- B live mostly in zoos
- C can only eat bamboo
- D can live longer than most people

4 Which sentence from the text explains the reason why the giant panda's habitat is in danger?

- F As China's population grows, it is cutting down more and more of the bamboo forests to make products.
- G There are only about 1,600 wild giant pandas left in the world.
- H The giant panda's favorite food is bamboo, which grows wild in forests of China.
- J In a zoo, giant pandas are well fed and protected.

5 Zoos keep some giant pandas in zoos in order to —

- A keep bamboo from extinction
- B save money
- C improve their diet
- D protect and study them