

- 1 The author most likely wrote this e-mail in order to —
- A persuade the principal to allow students more time to talk
 - B convince the principal to change a school rule
 - C list the reasons why students today need more learning in a school day
 - D describe the ways that students like to play
- 2 The phrase down time in paragraph 5 means time to be —
- F sad
 - G mad
 - H not busy
 - J not alone
- 3 Based on information from this e-mail, the reader can tell that the author —
- A does not listen to his mother
 - B does not like school
 - C prefers to be outdoors
 - D enjoys recess very much
- 4 Which of these will most likely happen next?
- F The principal will read and respond to the e-mail.
 - G The principal will do away with all recesses.
 - H The principal will continue the current recess rule.
 - J The principal will allow two recesses a day.
- 5 Which of these is an opinion about students stated in the e-mail?
- A They need time to talk and play with their friends.
 - B My mom says that our bodies make Vitamin D from being in the sun.
 - C Outdoor recess is also another place for us to get our dose of sunlight.
 - D As the principal of this school, you set the rules for quiet hallways and cafeteria time.